

ANOOOP MAHAL

ANOOP MAHAL OF JUNAGARH FORT

Our restaurant, named after the beautiful palace in Junagarh Fort of Bikaner by the same name, recreates the exquisite ambience of the royal 'Diwan-e-khas' (Assembly of nobles) that the Anoop Mahal used to be in all its splendour. It was built in 1669 by the then Maharaja Anoop Singh in commemoration of his victorious campaign of the Deccan (Hyderabad and Golconda). With its intricate work in gold and precious stones on the walls and ceiling, this section of Junagarh Fort is a rare sight among Indian Palaces. It was the creation of the artist Ali Raza 'Usta' whom the Maharaja employed from the Deccan. Since then the 'Usta' art has become synonymous to Bikaner and is still practiced by Ali Raza's descendants.

We welcome you to this rich heritage of Bikaner and hope that its flavour will linger on with you forever.
